

TOURISM SOUTH EAST

Would you like to help us support the largest tourism economy outside of London?

Tourism South East is a private and public partnership, serving as the strategic tourism body for the South East of England, and currently recruiting a Partnership Director

Based in Eastleigh, Hampshire
With extensive travel within the Region and some in the UK
c £55,000 to £60,000 per annum plus car and benefits

Are you a dynamic articulate professional who can build, maintain and develop Tourism South East's relationships with its external stakeholders, facilitate effective partnerships and ensure our profile and key messages are effectively communicated?

Drawing on your extensive experience of Partnership and Business Development working, you will need to lead the Partnership Directorate and be responsible for the Business Plan delivery targets and budgets. This is also a key role to support our county-based area partnership committees.

You will ensure the delivery of the Commercial and Local Authority Membership plans; lead the development and management of an effective internal and external corporate communication strategy and also contribute to the strategic and operational management of the organisation as part of its senior management team. The Partnership Director will also work with the Chief Executive to manage the reputation of Tourism South East and tourism in the region.
