£26,703 - £31,557

The Liverpool Culture Company is looking for an enthusiastic & knowledgeable individual to take forward a unique opportunity to establish the city as one of the world's great music destinations. With our commercial and other partners we are committed to maximising this opportunity in the build up to our year as European Capital of Culture. Working in new and innovative ways across a wide range of partnerships, the successful candidate will be at the centre of an exciting programme of activities, campaigns and events designed to give due prominence to music as a key component of the city's tourism/cultural offer.

In this role we are looking for knowledge, enthusiasm and above all commitment. The role will involve working with venues, artists, tourist attractions, record labels and numerous other partners.
